

HOUSING TRUST SILICON VALLEY

APPROVED HOMEBUYER EDUCATION PROVIDERS

All borrowers, co-borrowers, and non-borrowing spouses must complete an approved 8-hour Homebuyer Education Course and any required homebuyer counseling before receiving program pre-approval. The Homebuyer Education Certificate, serving as proof of completion, must be submitted before the open application period.

The following homebuyer education providers offer either in-person classes or online courses through E-Home America or Framework Homeownership. Please note:

- Online courses through E-Home America and Framework Homeownership require participants to complete a homebuyer counseling session with one of the approved agencies listed below.
- Registration for these online courses must be completed directly on the respective websites.
